Although the VOX brand has been owned by numerous companies, and even though each of them has made some changes to the AC30, the amp itself has remained basically unchanged since 1965. This in itself is a glowing tribute to the original product designed by Dick Denny when VOX was part of Jennings Musical Industries.

4. When the AC30 was originally designed, the above features were of great benefit for that time. It fitted in with the music styles of the day, and, probably more importantly, only one amplifier was needed for guitar (or two), bass and vocals; they could all be plugged into a single AC30. In those days money for equipment was very scarce, particularly in the UK, and high volume levels ...
