The book Boundaries was amazing and life changing; however, the workbook was poorly organized and very repetitious. Although many of the questions were relevant and important, many were just recycled from the previous section. The chapters in the workbook did not correspond with the chapters of the Boundaries book.

The workbook can be used alone without the group study, and asks more probing questions when it comes to defining your own personal boundaries. This book goes further than the book does in asking you what lies behind your boundary issues. I can't give enough high praise of this book and the questions that it asks.
