Like many full size vacuums the UH30600 is powered by a 12 amp motor. It uses WindTunnel MAX technology which, according to Hoover, provides 3 suction channels and limits any scattering of dust or debris - a rather vague description at best, but consumers agree that this machine does provide excellent suction.

A few days ago I asked a question on The Boat Galley's Facebook page about what onboard vacuum cleaners people really liked. I was asking both on my own behalf — we'd had several on Que Tal and not liked any and I know I need one for Barefoot Gal — and also on behalf of Donna, a reader who had emailed me with the same question.. I specifically asked for one that was:
