Latter-day Saints believe in the Holy Bible, both the Old and New Testaments. In addition, they use other scriptures, including the Book of Mormon, which serves as another witness to the ministry of Christ and His divinity. Used together, these scriptures offer insight into such vital questions as the nature of God, salvation and the Atonement.

President Ezra Taft Benson explained the role of a keystone as follows: "A keystone is the central stone in an arch. It holds all the other stones in place, and if removed, the arch crumbles. "There are three ways in which the Book of Mormon is the keystone of our religion. It is the keystone in our witness of Christ.
